EXTRACTS OF THE GIUSY MORETTI COLLECTION - MURRINE FROM 1873 TO 1924

- 1873 - 1890 • Flowers, butterfly and mosaics by the great-grandfather Vincenzo Moretti.
- 1880 - 1900 • Self-portrait and historic portraits by great-grandfather Vincenzo and grandfather Luigi.
- 1892 • Christopher Columbus portrait, designed for the celebrations of the 4th centenary, personally brought to America and used by the Chicago authority as the official souvenir-gift.
- 1924 • The "Rooster" by father Ulderico, designed to express the discontent with the absorption of Murano into the Venice Council.

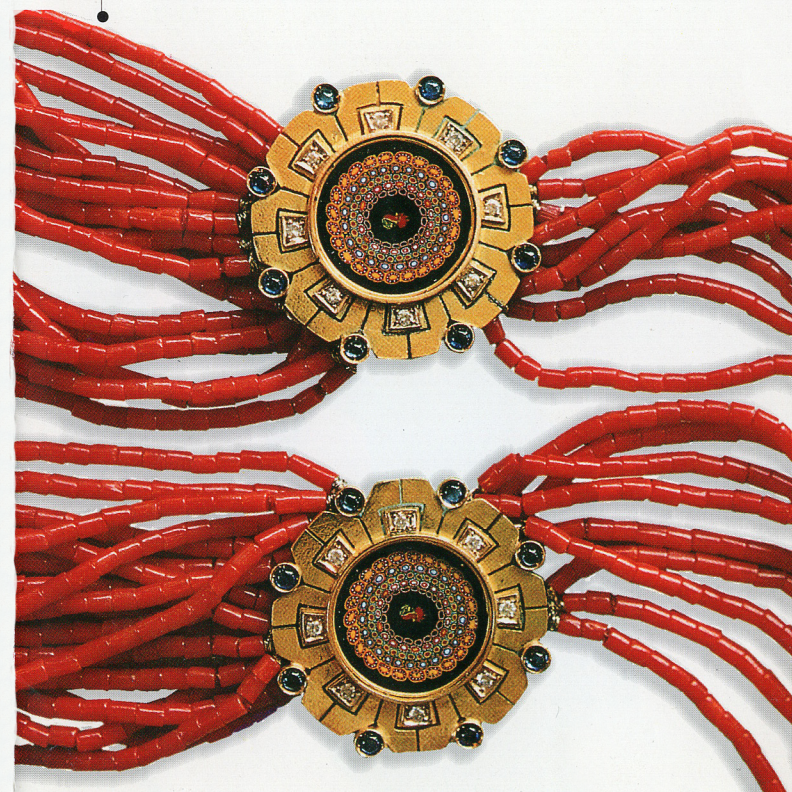

*R*oman
chain and pendants
necklace, medallion with Murrina "Christopher Columbus"
Luigi Moretti 1892, and 24 diamonds.

*S*tudy for clip and ring,
rose cut diamonds and Murrina "Gallo",
Ulderico Moretti 1924.

*C*oral chain with gold clips, diamonds, rubies
and Murrine by Ulderico Moretti.

*M*ORETTI, a name that evokes a tradition, a culture and an island, Murano, big as the world, the world of glass.

Rare fragments of history, these gems of irrepe-
table and precious workmanship are miniature glass wonders, crafted with patience by illustrious ancestors. Giusy Moretti, a designer of great sensitivity, has searched within herself to find the colours, shapes and lights of tradition,
and her jewellery are the interpretation of what her father, grandfather and great-grandfather have blown inside her soul.

*G*old and diamonds earrings with Murrine
"Tulipani", Vincenzo Moretti 1873.

*D*rop earrings in chiselled gold and sapphire, with five Murrine "Gallo"
(1924 Ulderico Moretti)
